

Research Assistant I (Ref: 2400225)
Centre for Child and Family Science

Project Title: English Learning Support Programme for Primary School Students with Dyslexia

[Appointment Period: 24 months]

The appointee will provide support to the project entitled “English Learning Support Programme for Primary School Students with Dyslexia” and other Centre businesses. This project aims to develop and implement a tiered intervention model: supporting the learning of English as a second language for primary school students with reading and writing difficulties.

The appointee will prepare test materials, conduct tests and interviews with students, parents, and teachers, and offer all the support required for literature review, data collection/transcription/analysis, report writing, and resource development. They will also liaise with teachers and parents as well as supervise part-time research assistants and student helpers. The appointment period can be up to 2 years commencing July 2024, depending on the appointee’s qualifications and experience.

Applicants should have a Bachelor’s Degree, preferably in psychology, social sciences, education, or other related disciplines, with relevant post-qualification full-time working experience or an approved qualification of equivalent standard. They should have good multi-tasking, interpersonal, and communication skills. Applicants should also have high proficiency in both written and spoken English and Chinese, and a mastery of statistical analysis and applications. Knowledge of language learning and experience of supporting SEN students will be advantageous.

For more information about the position, please contact Professor Kevin Chung at kevin@eduhk.hk.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 22 March 2024. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes.
