

Executive Assistant (Ref: 2400823)
Office of the Associate Vice President (Internationalisation)

The appointee will provide a comprehensive range of administrative and executive support to the Associate Vice President (Internationalisation) – AVP(I). Duties include providing support to matters related to internationalisation, in particular collaboration and partnership with educational institutions in the Belt & Road countries; and performing any other duties as required by AVP(I). The initial appointment will be for a period of 2 years with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's Degree, preferably with post-qualification working experience gained in tertiary institutions. They should have an excellent command of both written and spoken English and Chinese (including Putonghua), good management and interpersonal skills, be able to work independently and be attentive to details. They should also be meticulous, patient, highly self-motivated, and have a strong sense of responsibility.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 10% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 9 September 2024. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes.
