We are looking for suitable candidate(s) to fill the following position(s). If you are excited by the prospect of contributing your expertise to the development of a leading university at the heart of Asia Pacific region and beyond, we would like to hear from you.

Project Manager (Ref: 2401300) Office of President

The appointee will assist the President and the presidential team in overseeing various international conferences and managing strategic initiatives and developments. To advance the University's strategic priorities, the appointee will support the development and enhancement of collaborations and networks in Hong Kong, the Greater Bay Area, the region, and beyond.

Responsibilities include overseeing the execution, financial management, and administration of international conferences to ensure smooth operations. The appointee will work closely with internal organisers at departmental or faculty levels, as well as with external stakeholders collaborating with the University to achieve broader impact. In addition, they will liaise with Senior Management, the Communications Office, and other project team members to promote these conferences and sustain their impact.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's degree, preferably a Master's degree in Education, Business and Management or a related discipline, with substantial years of post-qualification experience in managing projects. Applicants should have strong leadership and coordination skills to manage projects in team settings, experience in conflict resolution, sensitivity to confidential matters, and the ability to handle challenging situations tactfully, strong presentation and negotiation skills to liaise with internal and external stakeholders, with high proficiency in written and spoken English and Chinese (including Cantonese and Putonghua).

Travelling outside of Hong Kong is occasionally required.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 15% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits, and, where applicable, housing benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV. Review of applications will start from 27 November 2024, and will continue until the post is filled. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.
