

Executive Assistant (Ref: 2401380)
Department of Science and Environmental Studies

The appointee will be responsible for providing executive and clerical support across various functions, including marketing, admissions, implementation, and evaluation. Additional responsibilities include managing departmental activities, designing promotional materials such as posters and leaflets, and serving as meeting secretary. The role also involves networking with educational partners, institutions/organizations, and alumni, as well as performing general administrative duties like arranging meetings, data manipulation, systems management, and office management; liaising with internal and external stakeholders and performing any other duties as assigned. Travelling may be required. Occasionally, the role may require working off-campus and outside regular office hours. The initial appointment will be for a period of 2 years, with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

Applicants should hold a Bachelor's Degree and possess strong interpersonal and communication skills. Proficiency in both English and Chinese is required, along with familiarity with computer applications such as MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Chinese Word Processing, and web applications. Relevant working experience in publicity and marketing fields and office administration within a tertiary institution is preferred. Fluency in Putonghua will be considered an advantage.
