

Founded in 1994 and awarded the University title in 2016, The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) is a publicly funded university, dedicated to the advancement of teacher education and related disciplines through a diverse offering of academic, professional and research programmes. The University aspires to become a leading university in the Asia Pacific region and beyond, with a focus on educational and multidisciplinary research, development and innovation. We are committed to nurturing outstanding and caring educators and professionals as well as enhancing the impact of scholarship.

The University has an academic/teaching staff strength of about 450 and total student headcount of about 11,000. It has a Graduate School and three Faculties, namely, Faculty of Education and Human Development, Faculty of Humanities, and Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, comprising 15 academic departments, as well as two Academies, Academy for Educational Development and Innovation and Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures, a number of University-level research centres and Faculty-level research and professional development centres. For more information about the University, please visit <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

We are looking for suitable candidate(s) to fill the following position(s). If you are excited by the prospect of contributing your expertise to the development of a leading university at the heart of Asia Pacific region and beyond, we would like to hear from you.

Educational Development Manager (Ref: 2500249) Artificial Intelligence and Digital Competency Education Centre

The appointee will lead a project promoting innovative pedagogies for subject learning, self-regulated learning, and computational thinking development. They will be responsible for leading the design of teaching and learning materials for subject-specific teaching trials, project evaluation, and the planning of research activities, including pre-and post-tests, questionnaire surveys, and focus group interviews. The appointee will analyze research data, write project reports, and organize annual dissemination activities. They will also be expected to carry out other duties as assigned by the Centre Director. The appointment will be until 31 August 2026.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's degree, preferably a Master's degree in Social Sciences or related discipline, with 12 years of working experience in sizable organizations, strong leadership and supervisory skills, and excellent interpersonal and communication abilities. They should be well-versed in the local education environment, particularly in the primary school sector, and capable of identifying key strategic issues in primary school education. Applicants should also have excellent written and verbal communication skills, with high proficiency in written English and Chinese, as well as spoken English and Cantonese.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Fringe benefits include leave and outpatient medical benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 4 March 2025. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.