

香港教育大學
The Education University of Hong Kong

Senior Lecturer II (Ref: 2500368)
Department of Special Education and Counselling
Faculty of Education and Human Development

The Department is now seeking qualified and highly dedicated persons for teaching positions at the rank of Senior Lecturer II. Successful applicants will undertake teaching responsibilities across undergraduate and postgraduate programmes while contributing to curriculum development and departmental initiatives. This three-year appointment includes serving as Field Experience (FE) Coordinators for designated programmes, requiring close collaboration with educational partners to enhance teacher training outcomes.

The appointee will deliver instruction in Field Experience courses and teach core/elective courses focused on special needs education and diverse learning requirements and support for new programme development and curriculum innovation. Key responsibilities include conducting instructional briefings, coordinating student projects, and driving professional development initiatives in inclusive education. As FE Coordinator, the role involves overseeing block practice placements, ensuring adherence to pedagogical standards, and bridging educational theory with classroom practice to improve practicum quality. Candidates must demonstrate at least three years of hands-on teaching experience in Hong Kong schools, with proven ability to collaborate effectively across programme teams and departmental committees.

Qualifications require a professional teaching certification such as PGDE or Education Bureau-recognized Qualified Teacher Status (QTS). Applicants should have a Master's degree in a relevant subject discipline plus a minimum of 8 years' relevant post-qualification teaching / professional experience in relevant areas; or preferably a Doctoral degree plus a minimum of 3 years' relevant post-qualification teaching / professional experience in the relevant subject discipline.

For information of the Department, please visit this website: <http://www.eduhk.hk/sec/en>.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 15% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits, and, where applicable, housing benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV. Review of applications will start from 17 April 2025, and will continue until the post is filled. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

Further information about the University is available at <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.

