

Post-doctoral Fellow (Ref: 2500413)
Department of Early Childhood Education

Project Title: Discovery of Unintentional Doping in Sport
[Appointment Period: 3 months]

We are seeking an appointee to support the project leader in conducting systematic reviews, Delphi studies, and performing relevant quantitative and qualitative data analyses. The successful candidate will be expected to write academic papers and scientific reports, as well as carry out other research tasks assigned by the principal investigator.

Applicants should hold a Doctoral Degree in the fields of education, health psychology, sports sciences, physical education, or a related health discipline, and should have a good command of written and spoken English and Chinese (including Cantonese). Candidates must be self-motivated, responsible, organized, and capable of working both independently and as part of a team. If you meet these qualifications and are interested in contributing to meaningful research, we encourage you to apply.

For further enquiries about the post, please contact Dr. Derwin Chan King Chung at derwin@eduhk.hk.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Fringe benefits include leave and outpatient medical benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 23 April 2025. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.
