

Research Assistant I (Ref: 2500436)
Department of Social Sciences and Policy Studies

Project title: Teaching and Research Development in Primary Humanities

[Appointment Period: 12 months]

The Department of Social Sciences and Policy Studies is seeking a full-time Research Assistant to support teaching and research activities related to Primary Humanities education under the supervision of Professor Stephen Chiu and Dr. Benjamin Li. The appointee should have a strong understanding of local primary school curricula and educational practices, along with proficiency in qualitative and quantitative analysis. Relevant experience, such as primary school teaching or teaching material development, is preferred. Responsibilities include assisting with research projects, preparing teaching materials, and collaborating with faculty to enhance educational pedagogy.

Applicants should have a Bachelor 's degree in Social Science or related disciplines. Experience and skills in analyses of survey and interview data would be an advantage. Good command in both spoken and written English and Chinese (Cantonese and Putonghua) and with good communicative skills are essential. The appointee will also be occasionally required to perform duties in non-regular hours.

For further enquiries about the post, please contact Dr LEE Ka Man Dominic at kml@eduhk.hk.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV. Review of applications will start from 28 April 2025, and will continue until the post is filled. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered.
