

Objectives

- Enrich students' understanding of multiculturalism
- Enhance their awareness of global sustainable goals through an exploration of Poland's rich agricultural and horticultural traditions

FROM FARM TO TABLE: Immersing in Poland's Agricultural and Horticultural Traditions

17 May to 28 May 2025

Highlights

- Nicolaus Copernicus University in Torun, Poland
- rural areas and agricultural regions in Poland, where students will engage in activities such as harvesting fruits and vegetables and tasting local produce
- botanical gardens, nurseries, and greenhouses
- discussions and workshops on global sustainable goals

Cost

$10,500 (UGC has subsidised part of the tour fee)

Including flights, accommodation, meals, transportation & entrance fees

#No additional funding is available for this scheme. Participants cannot apply for GLEF or other funding to support the tour.

Information Session

Date: 21 November 2024 (Thur)

Time: 14:30-16:30

Venue: B3-LP-08

Application

Quota:15

Application Deadline:

30 November 2024 (Sat)

Tour's themes

- Enrich students' understanding of multiculturalism and enhance their awareness of Global sustainable goals through an exploration of Poland's agricultural and Horticultural traditions

The study tour leadership team

LAM Tin Miu, Giselle
Benjamin SO

Date

Saturday 17 May to Wednesday 28 May 2024

- Application deadline: 30 November 2024
EdUHK has been subsidized 15 places on the tour.
- The tour fee after subsidized is HKD10,500
- Shortlisted students will be invited to the group interview in early December; and
- Successful students will have to make the payment by mid/end of December 2024.

The selection criteria

Priority will be given to those who have not yet had international education experience during their studies at the University and senior year students, who will not have chance to have overseas experiences

- Visa to Poland (Schengen area) is not required for HKSAR passport holder if the stay is not exceed 90 days
- Please check with your embassy for other passport holders

- This study tour will be counted as an ELAT (Experiential Learning and Achievements Transcript) activity.
- Your transcript will show the record of attendance of the study tour.

Itinerary

Warsaw
Torun
Krakow
Zakopane

Nicolaus Copernicus University
Zywe Museum Piernika
Morskie Oko
Agricultural Visits

Any questions?