Scholarships of Master of Arts in Music Education Programme

The Department of Cultural and Creative Arts (CCA), The Education University of Hong Kong is happy to offer some unique scholarship opportunities for successful applicants to the Master of Arts in Music Education [MA(ME)] program that caters for the needs of practitioners in Hong Kong, particularly those who aspire to professional advancement and work with students, adolescents and adults in educational and cultural settings. These scholarships are available for both EdUHK immediate graduates and NON EdUHK graduates with outstanding academic achievements and contributions to music/music education: two scholarships will be awarded for each category.

About the Scholarships

EdUHK graduates:

- Two Half Scholarships will be offered per year to any MA(ME) applicants who are immediate graduates of CCA music undergraduate programmes.

Non-EdUHK graduates:

- Two Half Scholarships will be offered per year to any MA(ME) applicants who are non EdUHK graduates.

For each Half Scholarship, an amount equivalent to the half of the annual programme tuition fee will be awarded. The scholarship amount will be paid in two equal installments during their MA(ME) studies.

Additional notes:

- The awardees will be allowed to hold concurrent scholarships or bursaries as long as total amount receivable does not exceed the full tuition fee of the programme;
- The awardees shall refund to the University if they are not able to successfully graduate from the MA(ME) programme within the maximum study period allowed according to the Academic Guidelines of the University.

Selection Criteria

Applicants must:

- meet the admission criteria of the Master of Arts in Music Education programme;
- possess excellent academic result in the undergraduate programme (minimum overall GPA 3.0);
- demonstrate a strong track record of achievements in and commitment to music/music education; and
- be highly recommended by at least two musicians/music educators (for non-EdUHK graduates only).

Application Procedure

- Application details, an on-line application form, and information regarding the MA(ME) Programme are available on the CCA website: <http://www.eduhk.hk/mame>.
- A completed application form with all required documentation must be sent to the CCA Department (B1-1/F-13, CCA Department, EdUHK, 10 Lo Ping Road, Tai Po, N.T., Hong Kong.) before the programme application deadline of the year. Applicants may be required to attend an interview. Successful recipients of the awards will be notified two months before commencement of study. The Department reserves the right not to offer any award in any particular year.

Conditions of Award

- The scholarship may be terminated if the performance of recipients is unsatisfactory or ceases to be students of the University. These awardees shall refund to the University the full amount of the scholarship received. All award recipients are required to attend all functions related to the scholarship.
- The second installment of the award is conditional upon satisfactory academic performance of the recipient. All recipients shall abide by any other relevant conditions as laid down by the University from time to time.
