Major Individual Comments Collected from Student Survey 2023-24

1. The most common compliment across all services was the availability and convenience of the computers, printers, software, and equipment provided by OCIO.
2. The most common complaint across all services was the poor quality and reliability of the Wi-Fi services.
3. The most common suggestion across all services was to repair or replace faulty or broken devices, such as dual-screen computers, laminating machines and Wi-Fi routers.
4. The second most common suggestion across all services was to provide more instructions, training, and communication for the services and equipment, such as scanning and printing, sound booths, photo and video studio, VPN, antivirus software, chatbot and ChatGPT.
5. The third most common suggestion across all services was to improve the service attitude and responsiveness of the IT support staff and student helpers. In addition, students have suggested extending the opening hours of the IT Help Desk and increasing the variety of payment methods at the University.

Responses and action plan from OCIO

Provision of AI-related Services:	We have released GPT-4o to students and enhanced the service by increasing the monthly credit units to facilitate the University community to embrace the technology.
Wi-Fi Improvement Work:	After looking into the Wi-Fi logs, we found that many users connected to the wireless network via the public Wi-Fi for guests (SSID "Wi-Fi.HK via EdUHK") on campus. By default, this public SSID was configured to disconnect automatically every 2 hours. We have fine-tuned this particular SSID by increasing the total bandwidth from 20MB to 80MB and extending the time-out session from 2 hours to 8 hours earlier this year to improve user experience. To further enhance the stability of the Wi-Fi network, Wi-Fi network maintenance is conducted quarterly starting from Jul 2024.
Enhancement of Payment Channels:	We have enabled WeChat Pay and Alipay as additional tuition fee payment options in Apr 2024. In addition, more payment channels are now supported by the Octopus Payment Machines (OPM), including Octopus, Visa payWave, Mastercard contactless, UnionPay QuickPass, Alipay, WeChat Pay, Apple Pay, Google Pay and Samsung Pay. Students can use an OPM to purchase print quotas for network printing and pay for hall activities fees.
More Promotional Videos on IT Services:	Promotional videos on various IT services, such as "Introduction to IT Services" and "How to identify phishing emails" can be found on OCIO website. More promotional videos are in the pipeline to help users make the most of the IT equipment for learning and teaching purposes.
Quality of IT Equipment:	The replacement of IT equipment is conducted in accordance with the product life cycle. If students find any problems with the equipment, please contact IT Help Desk for immediate assistance.
Opening Hours of IT Help Desk and Service of Staff:	Regarding the suggestion to extend the opening hours of IT Help Desk, we implemented a 24-hour virtual assistant, powered by Microsoft 365 Copilot, on the OCIO website to provide general support in Jun 2024. We will release an online defect reporting form to facilitate the reporting of faulty IT devices on campus. Users could also leave us a message on the hotline after office hours and we will attend to your case as soon as possible. OCIO strives to provide professional and quality services to our users. We will remind our colleagues and student helpers of the importance of quality services and conduct additional training from time to time.
