

Chapter 12 Student Complaints / Grievances

Procedures for Resolving Student Grievances

General Guidelines for Making Complaints.

The procedures stipulated below are specifically for resolving a complaint which a student may have against staff member(s) of the University or any administrative or academic matters concerning one of the Faculties/School, teaching departments, offices, units or centres of the University.

1 Complaints on Administrative/Academic Matters

Normally, complaints on administrative or academic (including programme/course) matters should be directed to the relevant Head of the teaching department, office or unit concerned or Dean of the relevant Faculty/School. For details, please refer to the guidelines.

2 Complaints Concerning Discrimination

If the complaint or grievance is a matter concerning discriminatory acts handled under the Equal Opportunities Policy (see Chapter 4.6), the matter should be referred to the Equal Opportunities and Disability Access Officer.

3 Complaints Lodged Directly with the President

Complaints should only be lodged directly with the President after the complaint has gone through the normal channels and the student is not satisfied with the outcome of the investigations or the student is able to give reasons why the complaint should not be dealt with via normal channel(s). In both situations, the student should provide clear details including names of both parties, relevant facts, the nature of the complaint and any available evidence to support the investigation.
