

A year for an EdU Freshman

September

- It's time to turn to STUDY mode after a long summer break and intensive orientation activities.
- Set your own new goals. Ready to take new challenge.
- Meet new friends. Adjust to new environment and learning mode.
- Learn many new terms of EdU & university.
- For hall residents, you may need to set ground rules with roommates besides adapting to take care of own daily life.

October

- Most have adjusted to university life & learning
- Being tempted to “skip class”? Time to learn self-discipline & self-management
- Probably you have already be involved in some extra-curricular activities
- Time to plan for revision & group project

November

- Becoming busier with tests/mid-term & assignments.
- Besides study, probably you are busy with preparing to be ex-co members, joining activities and part-time job.

December

- EXAM, exam, exam...
- Survive the final exams. Have two to three/four week sem break to RELAX.
- Santa Claus is coming to town!

January

- Already half of your first year and come to another new year.
- No matter what your result is, let's accept and work hard again
- After several weeks of rest, remember to switch on “LEARNING mode” again though Chinese new year holiday is approaching.

February

- Enjoy the Chinese New Year and Valentine's Day with your loved ones
- Take reference from experiences in first semester, remember to have a good balance and planning of your study, part-time jobs and activities

March

- Entering the busy season. Prepare for tests/mid-term exams and assignments.
- Fortunately having several days of Easter break. Let's plan your time well.

April

- Work hard for assignments, and meeting deadlines...

May

- Finally it's the end of semester.
- Fighting for the final exams!

June

- Exam is over! RELAX!
- Take a good rest, for walking further.

July

- A diversified month of July, maybe you are still busy with the intensive summer semester courses, maybe you are busy with preparing the Ocamp, maybe you are enjoying life. Anyhow, ENJOY you summer!

August

- Become a senior student. Let's welcome the new freshmen.
- A year has passed already. Review and revise your plan, enjoy a fruitful and meaningful university life.
