

香港教育大學

The Education University of Hong Kong

Job Market Preparation: Etiquette in An Interview

Date: March 24 (Wednesday), 2021

Time: 3:30 - 5:30 pm

Speaker: Ms. LO, Jacqueline

Convenor: Dr. TAN, Weiqiang
Associate Professor, Dept of SSC

Registration link: <https://forms.gle/SbW4S2uEwL3djPFL8>

Bio of the speaker: Jacqueline is a seasonal human resource professional with over 10 years of experience in training, talent acquisition and talent development. She has conducted a wide range of soft-skill and project management trainings to corporates like Thomson Reuters and InProjects, as well as public classes through an engaging and fun environment to facilitate the best learning atmosphere. Jacqueline is an enthusiastic career coach and trainer who facilitating people in reaching their career goal as she believes everyone can shine in his / her career. She has helped more than a thousand people in their career through coaching, as well as talks on career planning invited by universities and various engineering associations to inspire young talents and students.

This guest lecture is part of the course BUS1021 Business Communication and Cultural Diversity at Workplace. It will be conducted in English.

Department of Social Sciences
社 會 科 學 系

Scan to register