

Teaching materials on legal framework and national security education for secondary students

- Local dailies reported that Hong Kong Educational Publishing Company (HKEP) and Hong Kong Huaxia Education Institute will launch teaching kits for secondary students covering the Constitution, Basic Law and National Security Law next year, with President Professor Stephen Cheung Yan-leung serving as the project investigator.
 - The framework and learning objectives of the teaching kit are proposed by Mr Jasper Tsang Yok-sing, EdUHK's Chair Professor of Hong Kong Studies Professor Lui Tai-lok, Educational Innovation Leadership Project Co-Director Mr Tai Hay-lap, Professor Albert Chen Hung-ye from the University of Hong Kong's Faculty of Law and former convenor of the Basic Law Promotion Steering Committee Working Group on Teachers and Students Dr Simon Lee Hoey, serve as project advisers.
 - Professor Stephen Cheung said the teaching kit is designed to incorporate the concept of legal framework and national security education into different subjects, allowing students to have a systematic understanding of the importance of these laws for Hong Kong's long-term development.
